As a user of the site www.cmarobotics.it, the Data Controller is hereby providing you with the following information about the cookies used.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files the sites you visit send to your browser (Internet Explorer, Mozilla Firefox, Google Chrome, Opera, etc.), where they are stored and then sent back to the same sites the next time you visit them.

While browsing a site, you can also receive cookies of different sites or web servers (so-called "third-party" cookies) on your terminal. This happens because on the web page visited there are certain elements such as images, maps, sounds, social network buttons such as "Like" of Facebook, etc., links to Web pages of other domains that reside on different servers than the one the requested page is on. In other words, those cookies are set by a different website than the one you are currently browsing.

Cookies used for technical purposes are defined as those used only to "transmit a communication over an electronic communications network, or as strictly necessary for the provider of an information service explicitly requested by the subscriber or user".
